DAY-BY-DAY ROUTE

Itinerary

A clear breakdown of each day of the trip.

DAY 1

Fly to Lukla (2,840 m) and Trek to Phakding (2,610m)

Your Everest adventure begins with an exciting mountain flight from Kathmandu or Manthali to Lukla (2,840 m), the legendary gateway to the Everest region. As the aircraft rises above the hills, the Himalayan panorama gradually unfolds before you. After landing in Lukla, take your first steps into the Khumbu and follow a beautiful trail through Sherpa villages, pine forests, and along the Dudh Koshi River to Phakding (2,610 m). The flight takes around 15-25 minutes, followed by approximately 3-4 hours of trekking. Your Himalayan journey has officially begun.

Trek to Namche Bazaar (3,440m)

Today, the trail takes you deeper into the heart of the Everest region. Walk beside the rushing Dudh Koshi River, cross traditional suspension bridges, and pass through peaceful forests before entering Sagarmatha National Park. After Monjo, the trail gradually climbs toward Namche, and with every step the mountains seem to grow closer. After approximately 5-6 hours of trekking, arrive at Namche Bazaar (3,440 m), the vibrant Sherpa capital nestled among the Himalayan peaks.

DAY 3

Everest View Hotel and Khumjung Village (3,780m)

Wake up to the fresh mountain air and set out toward the famous Everest View Hotel (3,880 m). The trail climbs gently above Namche, opening into one of the most spectacular Himalayan panoramas, with Everest, Lhotse, Ama Dablam, Thamserku, and Kongde rising across the horizon. After enjoying the views, continue toward Khumjung Village (3,780 m), a beautiful traditional Sherpa settlement surrounded by mountains. With approximately 3-4 hours of walking, this is a day to slow down, take photographs, and experience the culture of the Khumbu.

DAY 4

Trek to Tengboche (3,860m)

Leaving Khumjung behind, follow a scenic trail through forests and across the dramatic Himalayan landscape toward Tengboche (3,860 m). The trail offers magnificent views of Ama Dablam and other surrounding peaks before descending toward the river and climbing gradually through rhododendron and pine forests. After around 5–6 hours, arrive at Tengboche, home to the famous Tengboche Monastery. Surrounded by mountains, prayer flags, and peaceful forests, Tengboche offers one of the most spiritual experiences of the trek.

DAY 5

Trek to Pangboche (3,985m)

Today, continue toward Pangboche (3,985 m), one of the oldest and most traditional Sherpa settlements in the Khumbu. The trail winds through forests, mani walls, prayer flags, and open mountain landscapes, while the magnificent Ama Dablam dominates the horizon. After approximately 3–4 hours of trekking, arrive in Pangboche and take time to experience the quiet rhythm of Himalayan village life. The short walking day leaves plenty of opportunity to enjoy the scenery and connect with the local culture.

DAY 6

Trek to Phortse (3,840m)

Today takes you onto a quieter and more atmospheric trail toward Phortse (3,840 m). Away from the busier main route, the trail reveals a more peaceful side of the Everest region, with dramatic valleys, mountain slopes, stone houses, and breathtaking views surrounding you. The walk takes approximately 3-4 hours, giving you time to enjoy the landscape rather than simply passing through it. Phortse is a beautiful traditional Sherpa village and a memorable place to experience the authentic character of the Khumbu.

DAY 7

Trek to Kyangjuma (3,570m)

Leaving Phortse, descend through beautiful mountain scenery toward Kyangjuma (approximately 3,570 m). The trail offers changing perspectives of the Himalayan peaks as you move through forests, traditional settlements, and peaceful sections of the Khumbu. After around 4-5 hours of trekking, reach Kyangjuma, a scenic settlement located between the valleys of Namche, Khumjung, and the Dudh Koshi. This quieter day allows you to appreciate the landscape and reflect on the incredible journey so far.

DAY 8

Trek to Monjo (2,835 m)

The trail now gradually descends toward Monjo (2,835 m). As you lose altitude, the landscape becomes greener and the forests more prominent. Walk through familiar Sherpa villages, cross suspension bridges, and follow the Dudh Koshi Valley while enjoying the changing scenery. After approximately 5-6 hours of trekking, arrive at Monjo. The descent provides a refreshing change after several days at higher elevations and offers time to look back on the remarkable experiences of the upper Khumbu.

Your final day on the Himalayan trail takes you back to Lukla (2,840 m). Follow the Dudh Koshi Valley through forests and traditional villages, crossing the suspension bridges that have become familiar companions throughout your journey. After approximately 4-5 hours of trekking, arrive in Lukla, where your walking adventure comes to an end. Take time to celebrate the journey, share stories with your fellow travelers, and enjoy your final evening in the mountains.

After breakfast, head to the Lukla airstrip for your flight back to Manthali or Kathmandu, depending on the seasonal flight schedule and operating conditions. The flight takes approximately 15-25 minutes. As the aircraft leaves the Khumbu behind, watch the Himalayan peaks slowly disappear into the distance and reflect on the journey you have just completed. From your first flight into Lukla to the Sherpa villages, ancient monastery, suspension bridges, and unforgettable mountain panoramas, the Everest Panorama Luxury Trek leaves you with more than photographs, it leaves you with memories of a journey that will stay with you for a lifetime.
